

MADMAN

It takes a MADMAN to create a bold, rich and engaging wine like this. Blending three different varietals into an unheard-of combination of aromas, flavors and textures. Aged in a combination of stainless steel and neutral oak barrels.

It is rare in the wine world for there to be a truly innovative wine created. Using the bounty of California's North Coast, we blended Sauvignon Blanc, Gewurztraminer and Chardonnay into this compelling wine. Who would do this? I would.

- The Madman - The Winemaker - David Rossi
