

FULCRUM

Fulcrum Landy Vineyard Pinot Noir Press

PinotFile

2014 Fulcrum Landy Vineyard Russian River Valley Pinot Noir Moderately light reddish purple color in the glass. Bright scent of fresh cherries and sandalwood. Shining Bing cherry core with added flavors of cola and baking spice framed by silky tannins and lively acidity. Oak chimes in with a bass note. Flirty in personality and quintessential Russian River Valley in character. When tasted the following day from a previously opened and re-corked bottle, the wine had taken on woody, darker fruited and riper profile. 92; Outstanding Rusty Gaffney, August 2016

Pinot Report

Fulcrum 2013 Landy Vineyard Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley)

Medium-light ruby color; soft aromas of ripe cherries, baking spice and earth; gentle, pretty cherry and strawberry flavors with complex undertones of earth, spice and minerals; silky texture; good structure and balance; long finish. Spicy and silky Pinot with pretty flavors. 92 Points –Greg Walter, March 2016

Burghound

Fulcrum 2013 Landy Vineyard Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley)

This too exhibits almost exclusively red berry fruit scents and in particular cherry along with hints of kirsch, floral, spice and tea. There is lovely vibrancy and freshness to the detailed, intense and sleek medium weight flavors that are shaped by firm but ripe tannins on the balanced and lingering finish that is also beautifully persistent. The Gap's Crown is a bit more structured but this is finer and should drink well a few years earlier. Worth considering. 91 Points–Allen Meadows, January 2016

Wine Enthusiast

Fulcrum 2013 Landy Vineyard Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley)

Pungently earthy in red strawberry and cherry, this is a seductively textured wine from a fine vineyard, made in tiny amounts. Fresh-cut roses and black tea provide a savory element, balancing exuberant fruit and complex notes of cola. 92 Points Excellent; Highly recommended –Virginie Boone, December 2015

Restaurant Wine

"A quartet of very good 2013 wines from this Pinot Noir specialist"

2013 Fulcrum Landy Vineyard Pinot Noir

"The Landy bottling is full bodied and supple; a concentrated wine that is finely flavored (cherry, kola nut, toast), balanced, and medium long on the finish." 3+ Stars: Very good quality for its type, style, and price. Has distinctive character and positive attributes. Recommended

–Ronn Wiegand, August 2015
